

Reading Corner

Look out for reading tips, advice on book selection and some favourite reads from the staff and children at Oakwood.

Even before you start to read a book with your child, you can help to develop his/her reading comprehension skills by talking about the title, cover and blurb.

Foundation or Key Stage 1 Before reading:	Key Stage 2 Before reading:
Can you point to the title? or What is this? (pointing to the title) What do you think this story will be about? What might happen in the story? What do we call the writing on the back of the book? (Blurb) or What does the blurb tell us? 	What do you think this will be about? What might happen in the story? Why do you think that? What genre will this story be and how do you know? E.g. fantasy, comedy, horror. What do we call the writing on the back of the book? (Blurb) or What does the blurb tell us?

Have you read this yet....?

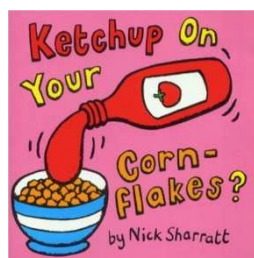

The World's Worst Children by David Walliams

The Fox and the Ghost King by Michael Morpurgo

Queen Munch and Queen Nibble by Carol Ann Duffy

Favourite book to make you laugh...

Mrs Sparrow

I used to read this book to my children when they were little and they both loved the silly combinations they could make with the spilt pages. It was brilliant because it was different every time you read it! A great giggle book to share!

Miss Daw

Harry really enjoys this story and spotting the evil pea! Shopping at the supermarket is never this much fun!