World Book Day - Thursday 2nd March 2017 Over 50 parents, grandparents, carers or friends came to read to the children at Oakwood

Over 50 parents, grandparents, carers or friends came to read to the children at Oakwood on the 20th World Book Day last week. Some parents brought their favourite books from home to read and others chose some of the great books from our school library. This was a wonderful opportunity to spend time reading together, a chance to see some of the fantastic book character costumes and to join in the general excitement of the day! Thank you to everyone for making it such an enjoyable way to end the day.

Learning to read one of the most important skills your child will ever learn. If you would like to spend time helping with reading on a more regular basis please let your child's class teacher know. Thank you!
